

Infinity Landscape

I

I am content deep within myself –
(these fields, these clouds, this distance)*
stretch in endless possibility, come what may

II

I am awake deep within myself –
(relax in sun's huge warmth, bright days)
take joy in feeling small, a bigger world

III

I am free deep within myself –
(unhurried in sunset's warm weight of sky)
travel up and down life's hills, reflect and ground

IV

I am resting deep within myself –
(shaped by wild storms, ebbs and floods)
I am all elements, I am stillness

* Feel free to add your own view, words and thoughts instead of Sarah's in the brackets throughout, finding rhythm as you go.
